

Ellen Trout Zoo Scavenger Hunt

Part I. Small Mammal-Reptile Building

1. What small mammal was used as a prototype for "Winnie the Pooh"?
2. What South American primate is on the endangered species list and looks like a witch doctor?
3. What Tasmanian mammal lays eggs?
4. Name two snakes with "horns" and give their continent of origin.
5. Name an animal whose skin produces toxins used to coat arrows of blow darts.
6. What country does the kookaburra come from?
7. Which species of East Texas rattlesnake is protected by state law?
8. What is the only species of venomous lizard found in the United States?
9. What bird is a status symbol in Indonesia?
10. What lizard has a bite that is normally lethal, but is not venomous?

Part II. Outside on the Grounds

11. What is the largest reptile in the zoo?
12. What island is the only habitat for lemurs?

13. Name five endangered species.
14. What makes flamingos pink?
15. What is the home range of the tapir?
16. How many horns do whit rhinos have?
17. How many living species of tigers are there?
18. What is the normal size of the hunting territory of a Siberian Tiger?
19. What do the letters SSP stand for on the sign "Tigers on an Ark"?
20. What is the name of the structure in the jaguar exhibit?
21. When jaguars are just walking around, are their claws retracted or extended?
22. What ruler took a lion into battle with him?
23. Why do lions have a mane?
24. How long does the average lion spend napping on the Serengti Plain?
25. On what date was the bald eagle adopted as our national emblem and what bird was the runner up?
26. How many eggs do alligators usually lay? How long does it take them to hatch?
27. About how many baby alligators will survive to become adults out of a nest?
28. Name four foods that otters eat.